

ANNETTE MEIJER

Vice President European Affairs & Deputy Head Brussels Corporate Representation
Deutsche Post DHL Group (DPDHL)

Deutsche Post DHL Group

<https://www.dpdhl.com/en.html>

Annette Meijer is Vice President European Affairs & Deputy Head of the Brussels Corporate Representation, Deutsche Post DHL Group (DPDHL). Annette covers EU policy and initiatives in the areas of customs, external trade, digital and EU-UK relations for DPDHL. In addition to the European Services Forum (ESF), she represents the company in associations such as European Express Association (EEA - which she chairs until mid-2023), Global Express Association (GEA) and FEDMA (Federation of European Data & Marketing).

Annette is a public affairs' professional for over 30 years, starting her career in the Social Affairs Department at UNICE (now BusinessEurope) in 1989. From 1993 to 1997, Annette worked as Adviser Social Affairs & SME Policy at EuroCommerce. She joined DHL Express in 1997. She had several public affairs roles within DPDHL before becoming Vice President European Affairs & Deputy Head of the Brussels Corporate Representation on the 1st of January 2018.

Annette obtained a Master Degree in European Studies at the University of Amsterdam and a Diploma of Advanced European Studies at the College of Europe in Bruges.

*

* *